

Young Leaders of Western Kentucky

Four Rivers Business Journal • Leadership Paducah Foundation

The Young Leaders in western Kentucky play a big role in moving our community forward. They are succeeding in business, education, government, and civic duty. They are the next wave of western Kentucky leadership!

The Four Rivers Business Journal, in partnership with the Leadership Paducah Foundation, are seeking nominations for our area's best Young Leaders. If you know someone who is making a difference within their profession and community, help us to recognize them by making a nomination today. We want to highlight them and their accomplishments as well as their role in the future of our community, as they are our future.

Criteria for nominees:

- Must be under 40 years of age as of April 28, 2011
- Must be in their current position for at least 2 years
- Successful in his or her craft
- Proven contributor to their profession and/or community
- Public and Private sector nominees accepted
- Self-nominations are accepted and encourage

Please provide as much information as possible so that our selection committee will have enough information to make a proper decision, with preferably a minimum of 150 words per question, excluding the "Other " section.

We recommend that you work with the nominee to provide us with the most accurate and detailed information. The nominations will be reviewed and finalists will be selected. All of the finalist will be featured in the August editon of the Four Rivers Business Journal. Of the finalists, a Young Leader of the Year will be selcted and will receive a $1,000 scholarship to be used towards professional development. The Young Leader of the Year and all the finalists will be honored at a luncheon on August 25. To purchase tickets please contact us at (270) 575-8625.
